

Wilentz is seeking Attorneys with 3 to 7 years experience to join its Family Law practice in our Woodbridge and Eatontown offices. Our Family Law team is highly experienced in all aspects of family law. We have represented hundreds of clients throughout New Jersey. We are dedicated to helping our clients navigate the overwhelming financial considerations and emotional burdens often associated with divorce, including alimony, child custody, child support, property division, mediation, arbitration, trials, domestic violence, same-sex marriage, grandparent visitation and appeals.

At Wilentz, our lawyers represent clients from all walks of life – from blue collar workers to high net worth executives, business owners, financial planners, accountants, doctors, professional athletes, entertainers and celebrities. We provide zealous representation and work tirelessly with our clients to achieve their personal goals, assess the strengths/weaknesses of each case and work toward achieving favorable results.

Our lawyers are focused on providing our firm's clients with proactive, practical legal solutions that respond to their most significant opportunities and legal challenges. Working in cross-disciplinary teams, our attorneys provide clients with the widest possible range of legal services, meeting all their business and personal needs.

If you understand the importance of providing the best client service possible, and you are looking for a work environment that values work/life balance, consider joining the Wilentz team!
